

You are invited to participate in the
Appalachian Festival's
Downtown Street Fair
Saturday, August 27th, 2022

*Great Promotion for Restaurants and Food Vendors - Bring your best cuisine for sampling/selling and the opportunity to be recognized as the area's best!
Good publicity and fund-raiser for organizations & churches!
Pop-up Shops and Vendors are welcome to set-up booths!*

Be a part of the 2022 Appalachian Festival and promote your restaurant, food truck, organization, or pop-up shop during Beckley Events' Downtown Street Fair. As one of several events planned for the multi-day festival, the block party will take place on Saturday, August 27th from 5:30 – 8:30 p.m. in Downtown Beckley. The festive block party will celebrate Appalachia with food and other vendors, music and family activities. Entertainment includes – The New River Jazz Band, The Untrained Professionals, and Matt Mullins.

Local restaurants and organizations are invited to participate by setting up a booth and selling samples of cuisine. In the past, this event was intended to provide attendees an opportunity to sample several dishes. The event is a great way to reach hundreds, promote your establishment, and if you are judged as the best one of the competition categories, you will receive an award certificate. Pop-up shops can also sell products during the event.

Interested participants should complete the attached registration form and mail to Beckley Events, P O Box 5015, Beckley, WV 25801, fax to 304-256-1816, email to jmoorefield@beckley.org or call 304-256-1776 by August 10th so we can include you in festival publicity and provide list of participants to the Health Department.
